More than 500 books were sold!

Many thanks to all students and parents who visited our Spring Book Fair from 12 to 16 March and bought books for themselves and for their class teacher!

Over 500 books were sold during the Book Fair. This is almost 150 books more than during our last Book Fair in September! Hence, we were having the Free Dress Day on Wednesday, March 21 as the reward.

About 60 books were donated to the Northwood classrooms! More than 20 of them were purchased by Northwood PTA.

We are very grateful to each and everyone of volunteers who helped us in carrying out this event, especially to: Northwood librarian Ms. Bobias, Ms. Shem, Anna Tan, Shradha Aravind, Naga Pravallika Gontla, Garima Gupta, Prabha Satheesh Kumar, Ksheerabdhitanaya Mohakuda, Sarmistha Ray and others!

THE BREAKFAST WITH THE PRINCIPAL

I enjoyed having breakfast with Mr. Derrick. It was like a dream come true. The food was great, and the pancakes were delicious.

I had very interesting discussions with Mr. Derrick about pets, favorite foods, and favorite TV channels. I had lots of fun, and had a great time.

ZUMBA NIGHT

I do same kind of dances but I never tried Zumba before. After going there I realized that Zumba is a fitness related dance. It requires a lot of energy.

Also the music we played was really energetic. It was very nice when we all danced in rhythm. Thank you PTA members for organizing this event!

Dhruvi S. (3rd Grade)

Dear PTA,

I would like you to know Zumba Night was good. I liked the snacks and the music was great.

However, I wish next time we can have 10 minutes of free dance. Also, there should be a yoga and dance party night. Finally, it would be nice if everyone got a prize.

Feedback

I thought the zumba night was a fun workout. We had a very enthusiastic demonstrator who kept encouraging us. There were refreshments and there were song from different languages which was very nice.

The only thing that could improve was proper spacing. It got a little hard to move since everyone gathered in a bunch otherwise I had a great time.
